International Congress of Immunology 2016

August 21 - 26, 2016

Melbourne, Australia

Late Breaking Abstract Submission to Open for Two Weeks Only!

An enormous THANK YOU to everyone for the astounding number of abstracts submitted for the International Congress of Immunology (ICI) 2016! With over 3,000 abstracts submitted, the Scientific Program Committee is now hard at work putting together a program to remember.

We are delighted to announce that late breaking abstract submission will be open for two weeks only, from 29 February 2016 until 14 March 2016 for the latest groundbreaking results.

Visit the website for further details about submitting a late breaking abstract.

Have you Submitted your Travel Grant Application?

Applications for travel grants on offer from the American Association of Immunologists (AAI), BioLegend and Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation (BMGF) for immunologists from developing countries have now been extended until 14 March 2016. Plus the Federation of Immunological Societies of Asia-Oceania (FIMSA) is delighted to extend the application deadline for their own travel grants until 14 March 2016 as well.

There is still time to apply for the following travel grants from the organisations below who are also offering their own travel grants to assist participation at ICI 2016:

- o The Australasian Society for Immunology (ASI)
- o The American Association of Immunologists (AAI)
- o The British Society for Immunology (BSI)
- o The European Federation of Immunological Societies (EFIS) / European Journal of Immunology (EJI)

Visit www.ici2016.org/travel-grants/ to view the travel grants on offer for ICI 2016 and be sure to check the eligibility criteria and application closing dates as they vary.

Submission of an abstract or late breaking abstract is required to apply for all travel grants.
